HONGKONG, TUESDAY, JUNE 14, 1887. THE impression which prevailed vesterday, that the Government had agreed to postpone consideration of the new Public Health Bill until next Session, was evidently based upon insufficient grounds. We now learn that the arrangements are as yet unchanged, and that the Lezislative Council will meet to consider the Bill in its present form about the beginning of next month. What the effect of the Petition from European property-holders and others may have upon the action of the Government remains to be seen; and the influence which the steps proposed to be taken by the Chinese community in opposition to certain portions of the Bi may exercise on its promoters has yet to be discovered. It is true that promises have been made by Mr Marsh and the Attorney General that the Bill would not be proceeded with this Session, and it is a fact that, in its present form, the Bill comprises sections which cannot but provoke the strongest opposition. But the plea for postponement based upon the labour. heat of the weather appears to us to be rather weak and inconclusive. It is not a great sacrifice to discuss an important matter, under an officially-swung punkah | days at Government House throughout the the Council Chamber, even if the temperature be mearer 90 than 80. The Legislative Council ought, we think, to meet say once a month all through the year, to dispose of important business. That part of the plea in the European Petition, however, which is based on other grounds is more reasonable. Taking the Bill as it appears, with all the Haiphong. The assassin is said to be objectionable and disputed sections, it Frenchman. would be both unreasonable and unjust to rush it through the Council. Many property-holders who are absent in England could not possibly be in a position to protect their interests at such short notice; and for this reason alone, a postponement is absolutely necessary. we have previously stated, however, the reasons for postponing the disputed sections do not apply to the other portions of the Bill. Does any adequate ground exist for postponing the formation of the Sanitary Board, or for arming it with powers for the effectual sanitation of the main and house drains, houses, streets, and latrines, of the city? We believe that the authority to deal with actual nuisances—those defects in the sanitation of the Colony about, which there is little or no difference of opinion-could and should be given as speedily as possible to the Sanitary Board. It looks very like a policy of perseverance even to a suicidal point, to continue to clog desirable and necessary measure with undesirable and impracticable sections, even at the risk of defenting the entire Bill: Even assuming that the clauses referring to reconstruction were passed, is t not well known that they could not be carried into practice for many years, if at all? Why, then, imperil the whole Bill for the sake of a doubtful or impossible gain? One would suppose, from the tenacity displayed by the Executive in this matter, that this is the very last opportunity for many yours short of an exhaustive measure, covering every department of sanitation of the most advanced kind, can be worthy generally contradicted in official circles in and have generally shown such a contempt of their abilities. It cannot be doubted Tonkin, but that by no means lessens the for those in authority that the civil populacondition never was better !- that the scandalous neglect of efficient drainage and other elementary sanitary reforms has brought about a condition of affairs that (as Mr Chadwick says) must go on Twoof the roving unemployed fraternity. the theatre when he was suddenly set apon becoming worse until a radical cure is so common in this part of the world, were by a number of these men and severely applied. That being the case, and the this morning charged before Captain stabled by one of them. postponement of the Bill may, and probably will, result in a shelving of the question altogether for a considerable time; and we think that the of wasting time in prolonged and delaying discussions. Indefinite post-course, an absolute necessity. Any post nonement in the discussion and passing of the provisions admitted to be much needed should be deprecated. It the Government would meet the objections of property-holders and residents of all classes, they would postpone the dis nuted sections, and proceed at once to the discussion of the clauses that are very much needed to make this Colony what it ought to be.

A CORRESPONDENT of Der Ostasiatische Lloyd writes from Tamsui as follows :- Some days ago on my visit to Kelung I saw that about 5000 Chinese soldiers were angaged in the construction of the railway. Mesars Becker and Butler, who are surveying the ground, have already reached the neighbourhood of Kiaka, 3 miles from Kelnng. The most of the soldiers are engaged making a tunnel through a hill 240 feet high, which is a rather tedious work with the primitive implements at their service. Otherwise the ground will offer no great difficulties. The stretch between Niaka and Kelung presents a pretty picturesque scene. Along the mountain sides tents for the soldiers engaged at the work have been erected between tea plantations and rice fields. The construction of a branch line from Coal Harbour to Kelung has also been planned, and the surveying of the ground already begun by Mr Reid. A new mine will shortly be opened, and over all there reigns of Mr Edward Osborne, with making fast here as well as in Kelung much life and activity. One of the results of this is that the value of ground mounts from day to day. For example, a Chinaman, who was ready last year to sell two pieces of grounds which were used during the late war by the French for the construction of hospitals, for the sum of $2,800, would consider the ground now as cheap at $10,000. As the new Governor of Hongkong (Sir.

George William Des Vœux) appears to be but little known here, anything that tends to throw light on the character of the coming man' will be welcomed by residents in this Colony. We have received the following from a correspondent, whose prais, cannot be said to be of a half-hearted description. We plead guilty to complete rather large quantity of wood-work for ignorance as to what the Newfoundland Vocus: If our new Governor justifies this description, he will be equally well appreciated here. Our correspondent writes:-Referring to the appointment of Sir Wil-Hongkong, the Newfoundland press use the strongest terms of admiration regarding his public career. They refer no less to his excellent social qualities than to his administrative capacity, and there is an universal feeling of regret amongst all classes at his leaving Newfoundland. His kindness, geniality and unvarying courtesy have won him golden opinions. They say his conduct of the administration has placed the Colony under lasting obligations. One journal says :- No more popular Governor ever ruled the Island.

PORT ARTHUR.

There is a better prospect of the works progressing now, as the labour question has been taken in hand by His Excellency Chou Fu, who has re-assumed the chief direction and has re-instated Mr Wang as Superintendent of Works. There are many Frenchmen here now, but they do not make themselves easily understood by the Chinese. Torpedo engineers have been called for the new ships that are coming out, but Lin Thottai, the head of the torpedo department, says he has none, and recommends them to be got from the Tientsin Arsenal School; Liu, however, is not at all abashed by this confession of failure of his tornedo estabishment, but he is doing his utmost to get the terpedo school at Tientain abolished, and all the students brought into his place. This would give him some material to go on with, but in a couple of years' time perhaps there would be as few sligible candid. ates for engineers' billets as there are now. help is sent speedily.

D. News Bava :-The railway people are experiencing a good deal of difficulty with the inhabitants long the line, and it seems quite on the cards that the grievanes of a few individuals may grow into a general opposition to the railway. At Tougku, opposite Taku. the salt neople are up in arms headed by an important village Hampden who wears a button of some kind. They will not have either their houses, their graves, their land. or their water-courses interfered with a and as they muster a pretty strong force of men employed about the salt business they simply refuse to allow the railway navvies to proceed. The foreign engineers have also been threatened. At Sin-ho, the village in rear of the North Fortal Taku, the state of matters is even worse, and the latest news is that the whole force of the railway company, foreigners and all, have been driven off. The delay as well as expense will be seri us, for the line has been all pogged out and if they are forced to alter it a fresh survey will require to be made. The main cause of the opposition is said to be that the land has not been bought. the officials merely proceed to occupy it promising to pay afterwards, but the Chinese have an incorrigible mistrust of such promises. The military officials in the district have been commissioned to make the purchases of the land; and they have been called on to give protestion to the workmen and engineers, but the local magnates simply laugh at General Li, and his myrmidons. The Generals and Colonels have a wholesome respect for the villager with his dander up, and their usual procedure is when summoned to quell a riot to sit peacefully in their quarters until they have certain information that it is all over, and then they march in with their buttons and peacocks feathers to maintain order. What is at the bottom of the trouble is the shilly shally policy of the Chinese Officials. They cannot allow themselves to be ultimately defeated, but they are trying to make war with rose water and to cajole the people into parting with their land. The way it is gone about is thoroughly Chinese. The bose of the whole thing is H.E. THE CHINA REVIEW.

PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY. TENTH YEAR. INHIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chinese caused by the discontinuance of 'Notes and Queries on China and Japan, has reached its Fourteenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, and the Far East generally. of interest and value.'-North-China Herald. "The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publitation, and altogether forms a very luteresting and readable number. Mereorologists will find an interesting and valuable contribution by Dr. Fritsche, on "the Amount of Precipitation (Rain and Snow) of Peking," showing the results of observations made at the Imperial Russian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to to through fares from China and Japan to 1880. "Notes on the Dutch Occupation of Formosa," by Mr. Geo. Phillips, contains some interesting information, although much of it is second-hand. The Notices of New Books include a most generous and appreciative review of "The Divine Classic of Nan-Hun," and the Notes and Queries are as usual very interesting.'-North-China A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise.'-Chrysauthemum. The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than usual, but the few articles are very interesting. The opening paper by Mr Herbert A. Giles on "The New Testament in Chi-uese" treats of a question that must necesearily be of great importance in the eyes of all missionaries. . . Mr E. H. Parker's "Short Journeys in Szechuen" are continued, and a goodly instalment of these travels in the interior of China is given. Mr F. H. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Chang, founder of the Chinese Empire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number. -H.K. Daily Press.

Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:-The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the neighbouring countries, some what similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, antiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked or from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body, among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated. and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly
